NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Ideally located 5kms from local beaches (approximately 10 minutes by car), this individual villa enjoys a privileged setting with fabulous sea views.

Accessed via a short staircase, the property opens onto a bright and sunny entrance hall on the upper level. This floor offers two bedrooms, a family bathroom, a laundry room, and a generous additional space ideal for a home office, reading lounge or TV area. Large doors open onto a spacious terrace, perfectly positioned to enjoy the magnificent views and Mediterranean climate.

On the lower level, a stunning open-plan living and kitchen area creates an exceptional entertaining space. An entire wall of glass doors opens seamlessly onto another large terrace, again showcasing the spectacular views. This level also features a master bedroom with dressing room and en-suite shower room.

The villa benefits from reversible air conditioning for year-round comfort and solar panels providing hot water. The property is fully fenced and connected to mains drainage.

Combining a prime location close to the coast, exceptional views and modern comforts, this is a rare opportunity on the French Riviera — ideal as a main residence, holiday home or investment property.

Early viewing highly recommended.
