IN BRIEF

Set in a peaceful hillside location just 2 km from the lively village of Montaignu-de-Quercy with shops and a weekly market, this beautifully maintained architect-designed home (2007) enjoys breathtaking panoramic valley views across the valley and, on clear days, even the Pyrenees on the horizon. Designed for comfort and easy living, the house is bright and spacious, with a welcoming open-plan kitchen and living area flowing into a stunning veranda that opens onto a large covered terrace—perfect for outdoor dining while enjoying the scenery. The ground floor includes a generous bedroom with dressing room and private bathroom, while upstairs a self-contained apartment with living area, kitchenette and two en-suite bedrooms offers ideal space for guests or excellent rental potential. The easy-maintenance garden with fruit trees, multiple terraces and double carport completes this attractive property, perfect as a family...
