IN BRIEF

This beautiful stone house is located in the charming village of Cabrespine.

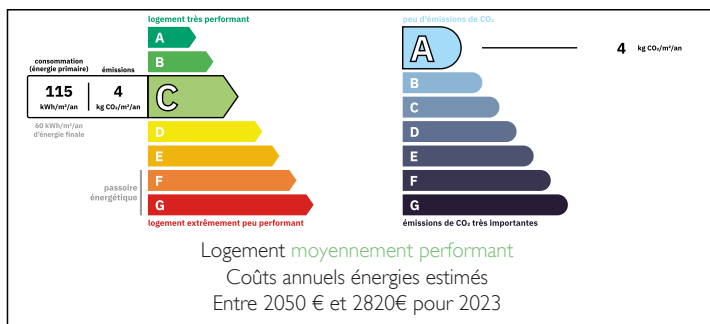

Tucked away , calm and private.

The ground floor has a large hallway with 2 reception rooms, guest toilet, kitchen and separate pantry. The main staircase leads up to the first floor from here.

The ground floor can be accessed by another entrance door to the side, which enters into a vestibule with small kitchen/scullery area. From here, a side staircase goes up to the first floor where there is a landing ,with the kitchen/ diner, leading to the 3 first floor bedrooms and family bathroom.

On the second floor is the fourth bedroom and an enormous fifth bedroom with living area and kitchen and family bathroom. This could be a separate apartment. There is also another large room off the living area , to be renovated.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Bedroom sizes:

First floor: m2: 10,9 24,0 13,0

Second floor: m2: 9,9 38,5

There is reversible air conditioning on all the floors and double glazed windows on the ground floor and first floor.

The roof has been replaced this year with new wooden support structures, waterproof covering and new roof tiles.

Located in the lower part of the village, this beautiful stone house nestles in the valley of the River Clamoux.

At the junction of Rivers Clamoux, Gaougnas, were found to be caves, later named Gouffre Géant de Cabrespine. These caves and expansive underground rock chambers have become very famous and are a great tourist attraction in this area.
