DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the heart of Meursault, this beautifully renovated house, equipped with air conditioning and underfloor heating, offers the comfort of contemporary living while preserving the charm of authentic Burgundian character. The property currently operates as a holiday home with a guest house, popular with wine enthusiasts. The property is sold fully furnished.

You can access the property from the street directly into the guest house via two separate entrances, and into the main house via the private central courtyard.

Upon entering the courtyard, hidden behind blue doors, you immediately feel the serenity and calm of this peaceful outdoor space while admiring the beautiful stone walls.

To your left, the main house features an old barn door converted into a large window opening onto the main living area with a modern open-plan kitchen. The heated stone-tiled floor, complemented by stone walls and beautiful original oak beams, creates a warm Burgundian atmosphere, contrasted with the sleek grey finishes of the modern kitchen.

A door leads to a toilet with a washbasin, from which you can access the utility and boiler room.

Stairs lead up to a mezzanine-style master bedroom with a large en-suite bathroom. You will admire the exposed oak beams and vaulted ceiling. A highlight of this space is a private elevated seating area, perfect for enjoying a glass of wine while overlooking the famous vineyards in the distance. Beneath this platform are cupboards providing ample storage space.

Below the house, accessible from the courtyard, is a beautiful vaulted cellar.
