DESCRIPTION

This beautifully renovated former village rectory offers spacious and characterful accommodation.

The property opens into a large and welcoming entrance hall. To one side is a spacious kitchen and dining room featuring a wood-burning stove, while on the opposite side of the hall is a lovely living and dining room, also equipped with a wood-burning stove. The ground floor also includes a separate toilet and a storage room that houses the water heater.

Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to the bedrooms and shower rooms. From this level, a door provides access to the rear of the property, where there is a gravelled terrace area.

On the top floor, there is a large attic and an additional room that works well as storage or could easily be used as an office. The attic itself is very spacious and could potentially be converted into additional bedrooms or living space if desired.

The house is 90% double glazed (with the exception of the front door, kitchen door and one window).

At the front of the house there is a small courtyard with parking for one car. To the side of the property you will find a well and a garden with two small stone sheds.

The village has a pleasant bar/restaurant as well as a post office, and the larger village of Saint-Séverin is just 4.5 km away.
