DESCRIPTION

In the heart of Huelgoat (29690), this charming Breton home offers the perfect blend of comfort, convenience, and character.

Just a short walk from the shimmering lake, the lively village square, and the local commerces, it enjoys an enviable setting in one of Brittany's most picturesque and sought-after destinations. Huelgoat, famous for its forest and granite boulders steeped in legend, provides a tranquil yet vibrant environment that draws visitors and residents alike.

Entering the house, a useful hallway and a toilet set the tone for a home designed with both practicality and charm. The fitted kitchen, measuring approximately 4.2 by 2.9 metres, is bright and functional, connecting directly to a shower room and a spacious dining area.

The dining room, of matching size, flows naturally into a cosy living room—also 4.2 by 2.9 metres—inviting relaxation and warmth. From here, you step into a ground-floor bedroom with a delightful glimpse of the famous Huelgoat lake visible through the trees.

A small hallway off the dining room leads to a second ground-floor bedroom of similar proportions and a generously sized main bathroom. The layout allows for easy, comfortable living all on one level, ideal for families or those seeking single-floor convenience. Original features and natural light bring a sense of authenticity and comfort throughout the space.

A wooden staircase rises from the dining area to the attic level, where a large, elongated salle de séjour—8.6 metres by 1.9 metres—occupies the centre of the upper floor. This space,...
