NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Location, location! This charming house is situated on the edge of the forest in the desirable "Les Chevannes" neighborhood. Lac de Pannecière is just a 10-minute walk away. The views are fantastic. Several terraces in the garden offer a pleasant spot to relax!

You can walk straight into the forest next to/behind the house.

The living room has two sets of French doors that allow for plenty of light and bring the outdoors in even more.

You'll find a fireplace here for those cooler evenings. Adjacent to the living room is the master bedroom, which has French doors leading to the terrace at the side of the house.

On this floor, there are two more bedrooms, a shower room, and a separate toilet.

The kitchen is a wonderful space for cooking and catching up with friends and visitors. It easily fits a dining table.

On the first floor, there are two more bedrooms and a bathroom with a bathtub and toilet. Ideal for extra guests.

Underneath the house is a large cellar/garage with a high ceiling. The washing machine is also located here.

The house has single glazing throughout, except in the master bedroom.

Heating is provided by the fireplace and some somewhat older electric heaters. The house is currently being used as a holiday home.

The house is located in the "Les Chevannes" district, which is part of Corancy.

Château-Chinon is a 10-minute drive away for your daily groceries.

Autun is also worth a visit, where you'll find more shops.

Furthermore, the Morvan region is rich...
