IN BRIEF

Lovely countryside ensemble comprising a main 3-bedroom house, with basement garage, benefiting from a south-facing aspect and open views over the surrounding countryside. The house offers generous living space with a large, bright living room featuring a wood burner and opening onto a balcony terrace of approximately 35 m² overlooking the land. The house is insulated and fitted with double glazing.

The property also includes an old stone house to renovate, with the roof redone in 2019, offering excellent potential for a gîte or guest house. A large barn of approximately 200 m² with a covered area to the rear and an open hangar completes the ensemble, with views over the fields to the rear.

A detached building with an old bread oven adds further character to the property. The land extends to approximately 11.93 acres and consists...
