IN BRIEF

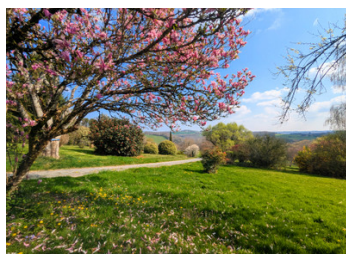

This beautiful French country house with its magnificent views offers peace and seclusion in unspoilt surroundings. Spacious and bright, the ground floor has a large kitchen-diner with separate pantry, a grand lounge with a huge feature fireplace, then a further generous reception room flooded with light from full height glass doors. A bedroom with en suite bathroom gives the option of single-storey living. Stairs at each end of the house lead to 2 separate areas on the first floor. The kitchen staircase leads to 2 further bedrooms and a shower room; the reception room staircase leads to a bedroom, a shower room and a store room. These distinct areas could make the property ideal as a B&B. The outdoor areas around the house include a sunny patio with awning to the front, a long shady pergola with grapevines...

DESCRIPTION

This beautiful French country house with its magnificent views offers peace and seclusion in unspoilt surroundings. Spacious and bright, the ground floor has a large kitchen-diner with separate pantry, a grand lounge with a huge feature fireplace, then a further generous reception room flooded with light from full height glass doors. A bedroom with en suite bathroom gives the option of single-storey living. Stairs at each end of the house lead to 2 separate areas on the first floor. The kitchen staircase leads to 2 further bedrooms and a shower room; the reception room staircase leads to a bedroom, a shower room and a store room. These distinct areas could make the property ideal as a B&B. The outdoor areas around the house include a sunny patio with awning to the front, a long shady pergola with grapevines and fragrant wisteria at the rear, and a large covered entertaining area to the side which looks on to the swimming pool. A perfect rural retreat for family and friends alike.

This property has double glazing throughout. The heating is provided by an airsource heat pump and the energy performance certificate classification is C. Being an isolated property, the sanitation is taken care of by a septic tank.
