DESCRIPTION

Champagny-en-Vanoise, the Champagny-le-Haut plateau is a true delight for lovers of unspoilt Alpine landscapes.

Close to the main village yet wonderfully secluded, the Champagny-le-Haut valley combines a spectacular natural setting, characteristic of glacial valleys, with a landscape shaped by generations of human activity and adaptation .

With its proximity to Courchevel and its direct connection to la Plagne on one side and being one of the major access points for the famous Vanoise National Park on the other, the village boasts a year-round attraction that sets it apart from many of the big ski station in its vicinity.

In winter, the valley offers a vast nordic and cross-country skiing area with almost 30km of prepared and secured runs, snowshoe hiking trails, horseback riding and ski-joering, dog sled rentals and the famous ice climbing tower with regular competitions and events attracting large crowds.

The freeride and off- piste enthusiasts that dare the thrilling rides from the top of La Plagne , Roche de Mio and Bellecote summits, into the wide bowls and steep couloirs leading down into the valley all arrive at Champagny le Haut.

Free shuttle buses run every 5-10 minutes to bring them back in less than 6 minutes to the the main village and its connection with La Plagne and Les Arcs /Paradiski and its 430km of slopes. A short drive via Bozel (less than 30min) takes you to Courchevel and its access to the gigantesque 3 V skie area.

In spring, when the ski season in the...
