DESCRIPTION

Charming and well-maintained 3-bedroom mid-terrace village house located in the medieval riverside village of Entraygues-sur-Truyère, beautifully situated at the confluence of the Lot River and Truyère River in the unspoilt valleys of Aveyron, in the Occitanie region of south-west France.

Tucked away along a peaceful village street just minutes from the riverbanks and lively village square, the property enjoys immediate access to cafés, terraces, the popular summer market and all everyday amenities within walking distance. Life in Entraygues-sur-Truyère revolves around the rivers, cafés and village markets, offering a relaxed pace of life in one of the most picturesque corners of North Aveyron.

Within a short walk are all essential amenities including bakeries, butcher, supermarket, post office, bank, doctor, public transport and even a cinema, making this an ideal location for either a permanent residence or an easy lock-up-and-leave holiday home in rural France.

The ground floor of the house features a single garage with a workshop area at the rear, ideal for additional storage or use as a practical utility space. A second entrance at the back of the property leads to a gated outdoor area which could serve as a secure parking space or be transformed into a shaded courtyard garden for the warmer months. Entering through the front door, stairs lead to the first floor which offers an open-plan kitchen and living area, a double bedroom and a recently installed shower room with WC. The second floor opens onto a generous landing space that could..
