DESCRIPTION

Surrounded by breathtaking natural scenery, the property benefits from panoramic mountain views and an immediate connection to the outdoors. In both winter and summer, the setting is equally enchanting—whether for skiing, hiking, or simply enjoying the tranquillity of the alpine landscape.

The chalet itself has been thoughtfully renovated to a charming rustic standard, retaining its authentic alpine character with traditional materials. It offers a comfortable base already, while still presenting exciting scope for further enhancement. There is clear potential to reconfigure or upgrade the property, subject to the necessary permissions, allowing a future owner to create a bespoke mountain retreat tailored to their vision.

Practical features include running water and solar panels, offering a degree of self-sufficiency and aligning with an increasingly sought-after eco-conscious lifestyle in the mountains. This balance of authenticity and sustainability adds to the property's unique appeal.

Opportunities such as this are increasingly rare—combining a privileged location, traditional charm, and genuine development potential. Whether as a private escape or a family mountain home, this alpine property represents a compelling and versatile offering in the heart of the Three Valleys region.
