DESCRIPTION

UNDER OFFER - Just 2 km from the medieval bastide town of Villeréal, this property is set in a wonderfully serene natural environment, at the heart of more than 2.5 hectares of land combining meadows, woodland and mature trees.

With no nuisances and no close neighbours, it offers a rare living environment—private, peaceful and preserved while remaining only 30 minutes from Bergerac International Airport.

The main house, bright and comfortable, features on the ground floor an entrance hall with WC, and a superb L-shaped living area combining lounge, dining room and open kitchen, each with direct access to a terrace ideal for enjoying sunny days. A bedroom with en-suite shower room allows for single-level living.

Upstairs, two spacious bedrooms filled with natural light thanks to large Velux windows share a family bathroom.

The entire house benefits from underfloor geothermal heating on both levels, ensuring optimal thermal comfort and excellent energy performance.

An independent 87 m² guest house completes the property beautifully. It offers a lovely living area with open kitchen, lounge and dining room, a bedroom and a bathroom. Its gas-powered underfloor heating makes it a fully autonomous space, perfect for hosting family, friends or tenants.

The outbuildings are a major asset:

- a 138 m² tobacco barn already granted a change-of-use permit, offering exceptional potential for creating a gîte, workshop, wellness space or any project requiring generous volumes;

- a second tobacco barn housing the 87 m² guest house, with an additional 61 m² available for storage
