IN BRIEF

Beautiful detached stone house with oak carport and outbuildings, set in the heart of a historic hamlet. Bright and spacious throughout, the property is ready to move into and offers the option to purchase the furniture. It features a welcoming living room and a kitchen/diner, both with log-burning stoves, as well as double glazing (some with electric shutters). The master suite benefits from its own private staircase.

Outside, a large terrace with multiple patio doors, an electric awning, and a driveway for several vehicles enhance the lifestyle on offer. The former piggeries, with water and electricity, are currently used as a workshop and wood store. A small orchard with a variety of fruit trees and a cellar complete this charming property. New roofs were installed in 2011.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully renovated detached stone house combines traditional charm with modern comfort, set in the heart of a historic hamlet. Light, airy, and full of character, the property is ready to move into and offers the option to purchase all furniture if desired.

Ground Floor:

The front door opens into a spacious living room (32m²), featuring patio doors with electric shutters leading to the rear terrace, a charming inglenook fireplace with a wood-burning stove, solid wood flooring, and exposed beams.

From here, stairs lead to a landing serving bedrooms 2 and 3 and a shower room.

From the living room a door leads to a small corridor with door to WC with sink and opens onto the kitchen / dining room (67m²), which is flooded with light through patio doors to both the front and rear. A central log burner provides warmth, and the kitchen is equipped with a large larder, range of eye and base units, central island, induction hob, electric oven, sink, and an electric radiator.

From the dining area, stairs lead to the master suite, and a door to the snug / 4th bedroom (14m²). This cozy double-aspect room features double-glazed windows and a charming feature forge fireplace (not tested), a nod to the property's historic use as a forge.

First Floor:

Stairs from the dining room lead to a landing with doors to bedroom 1 (17m²) with built-in wardrobes, storage above, reversible ceiling fan, and access to a small terrace overlooking the front courtyard with...
