DESCRIPTION

The ground floor features a cosy living and dining area complete with a wood-burning stove, creating a perfect space for relaxing year-round. This area flows through to a versatile room currently used as a second living space, which could equally serve as a bedroom. This room benefits from its own separate shower room and WC,

From the main living area, stairs lead up to the principal bedroom, a comfortable and private retreat with its own WC and washbasin.

Outside, the property enjoys a sunny garden and terrace area(approx 25m²)—ideal for dining or simply soaking up the Mediterranean climate. In addition, there is access to a cellar with concrete flooring, providing useful storage space.

This delightful home is perfect as a permanent residence, holiday getaway, or investment property in a sought-after village setting.
