IN BRIEF

Set back from the road in a peaceful setting, this charming stone house offers bright, spacious and beautifully maintained accommodation throughout.

The property immediately impresses with its welcoming atmosphere and generous volumes. It features a large living room with fireplace and exposed beams, a modern kitchen, a spacious dining room or office space and a light-filled, heated veranda opening onto the garden. Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom with corner spa bath, a shower room, and ample storage throughout.

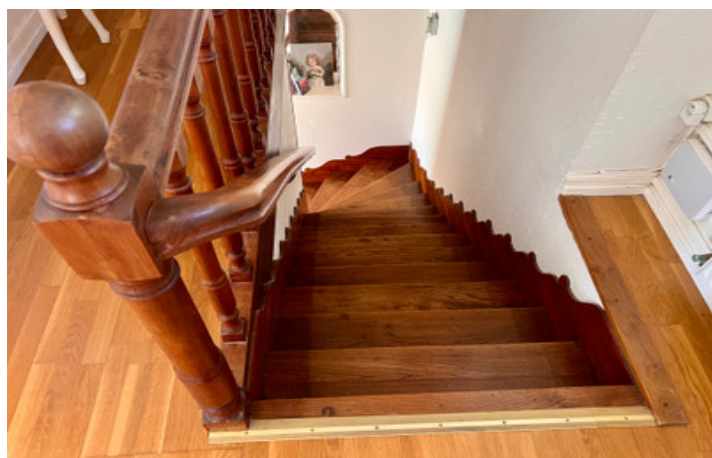

To the rear, a superb enclosed and mature 4,727 m² garden includes an outdoor spa, ideal for relaxation. The land is fully constructible and offers excellent potential: it can be divided to create an independent building plot of approximately 2,500 m², making this property particularly attractive for investment or a
