DESCRIPTION

Charming Coastal Home with Dune Views – Rare Opportunity in Normandy, France

Presented by Stéphanie Nash, Will Darwen, and Leggett Immobilier, this delightful 55 sqm holiday home immediately captivates with its warm atmosphere and cleverly designed layout, allowing for comfortable single-level living.

Set on a west-facing plot, the property enjoys exceptional natural light throughout the day, along with a private, enclosed garden that is not overlooked—ensuring complete peace, privacy, and a truly serene setting within an outstanding natural environment.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by practical storage spaces leading into a bright and inviting living area of approximately 18 sqm, enhanced by a wood-burning stove—perfect for creating a cozy ambiance all year round. The living space flows seamlessly into two comfortable bedrooms, a dressing room, a functional shower room, and a kitchen. Every area has been thoughtfully designed to maximize comfort and ease of living, making it an ideal holiday home.

Outside, the west-facing garden extends the living space with a terrace offering breathtaking views over the dunes—perfect for enjoying sunny evenings and spectacular sunsets. An independent entrance leads, via an external staircase, to an attic-level space comprising two adjoining rooms. This versatile area is ideal for additional bedrooms, an artist's studio, or a remote working space. This upper level also features a charming and intimate rooftop terrace—an exceptional spot to admire stunning sunsets over the dunes in a truly magical setting.

Located just a short walk from beach access, this property boasts a rare and highly desirable location...
