NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The ground floor features a semi-professional kitchen and pantry, along with a utility room, a living room, a sitting room, and an additional room currently used as a laundry room with a WC and the solar panel unit, which could easily be adapted to suit your needs. The layout flows effortlessly, creating a welcoming and comfortable atmosphere throughout.

Upstairs, the first and second floors offer seven spacious bedrooms, each with their own private bathroom and WC, ensuring both comfort and privacy. Ideal for a large family or for developing a bed and breakfast business.

The property retains many charming original features, including oak parquet flooring and ceiling mouldings, adding to its authentic appeal.

Outside, to the back of the property you will find a private south-facing terrace provides a peaceful space to relax, complete with a jacuzzi, with views across the countryside to the Pyrenees. To the front of the property is a small landscaped garden.

The home is equipped with self-consumption solar panels and benefits from a "virtual battery" contract, offering notable energy savings.
