IN BRIEF

A rare find! Hidden in the rolling countryside of Quercy Blanc, just minutes from Montcuq and Lauzerte, this rare stone property offers an exceptional renovation opportunity in Southwest France.

Set along a quiet rural track and enjoying a south-facing position, the property comprises two independent stone houses, each with beautiful open views across the surrounding countryside, alongside several barns and characterful outbuildings. With 6,360 m² of land, privacy and space are guaranteed—ideal for a lifestyle project, rural retreat, or gîte business.

The buildings require full renovation, offering a blank canvas to create a bespoke home or income-generating property in an unspoiled setting. A truly unique opportunity for lovers of nature and authentic French stone architecture, within easy reach of Cahors and Toulouse airport.
