IN BRIEF

Located in Plazac, a charming and typical village in the heart of the Périgord Noir, this character property enjoys an exceptional setting surrounded by more than 6 hectares of unspoiled countryside.

Approached via a long private driveway, the property offers complete peace and privacy, with no close neighbours, and enjoys beautiful open views over the valley and the village church tower.

The main house provides over 330 sqm of living space with generous volumes, including an entrance hall, kitchen, dining room / living room with fireplace, conservatory, study, library, utility room, and 5 bedrooms, including a superb master suite of more than 65 sqm.

A guest house, created within a former barn, completes the property and features a spacious living room, one bedroom and a shower room. The land is made up of meadows and woodland, creating a rare, preserved and deeply...
