IN BRIEF

This lovely semi detached farmhouse is immediately habitable but needs to be renovated. It has over 30 hectares attached land: approx 13 hectares are rented to farmers, approx 12 hectares is woodland and approx 4 hectares are pasture. It will take approx 40 minutes to walk around the property. There are 2 water wells that could be connected to the house if desired, and several water streams and sources on the land. There is a big barn with stable underneath next to the property and there are a few other outbuildings like a big hangar for storage. The property has a secluded position, with beautiful views everywhere, at approx 10 km from Auzances, a lovely market town with all daily amenities, at approx 65 km from Clermont-Ferrand (international airport), approx 130 km from Limoges (international airport) and at...
