NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located on the fifth and top floor of a building with elevator, this apartment enjoys a privileged position above the surrounding rooftops, offering a rare sense of openness and tranquility in the heart of Bordeaux. Set on Rue Huguerie, between the sought-after districts of Fondaudège, Jardin Public and Palais Gallien, the property benefits from a lively neighborhood atmosphere with shops, cafés and restaurants just steps away. Tram line D is only a three-minute walk and provides a direct connection to the main train station, while Place des Quinconces can be reached in about five minutes.

The apartment stands out for its exceptional natural light. With a dominant position above neighboring buildings, it is free from overshadowing and benefits from triple exposure, allowing sunlight to flow throughout the day. Large windows in every room further enhance the bright and airy ambiance.

A standout feature is the remarkable 33 m² west-facing terrace overlooking the rooftops of the city. Completely private and not overlooked, it offers sweeping panoramic views and an atmosphere of total calm, with no traffic passing below. Designed as a true outdoor living space, the terrace includes lighting, electrical outlets, a water point and an outdoor shower with adjustable temperature.

The residence is secure and well maintained, with low service charges. Additional amenities include a private cellar and a bicycle storage area, while a parking space is available as an option. Air conditioning is permitted within the building regulations and can be easily installed thanks to the...
