DESCRIPTION

As soon as you enter, the original period floors and spacious layout, offering abundant natural light, immediately catch your eye. The ground floor features three large living rooms with high ceilings, as well as a fully equipped kitchen and a separate cloak room/WC.

Upstairs, a large landing with fitted wardrobes serves four bedrooms, including a master suite with a bathroom with a shower and bathtub, a shower room with WC, and a separate WC on the halfway landing. On the top floor, a former maids room has been renovated into a guest room and provides access to the rooftop terrace and the attic.

Its location and numerous original features—a small flowered garden with a garden shed, a large enclosed garage, covered parking, and the potential to convert the attic and basement rooms—make this a truly unique property.
