IN BRIEF

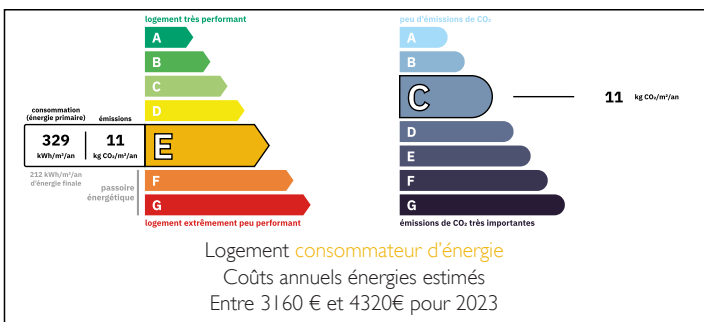

Do you love charming rustic country cottages with the beauty of exposed stone and beams? This delightful rural home has everything to win you over. Preserved from overly modern renovations, it has retained all its authenticity and character.

The kitchen is simple and welcoming, perfectly in keeping with the spirit of the house, while the wood-burning stove adds warmth and charm to the overall atmosphere. The bedrooms, located upstairs beneath the exposed beams, offer an unusual layout full of character.

Original in its design, the property is made up of two houses linked by a pleasant enclosed courtyard, creating an intimate and characterful setting.

Outside, the tree-lined and flower-filled garden enjoys a unique view over the valley, ideal for relaxing and making the most of the peaceful natural
