DESCRIPTION

The property benefits from two distinct entrances. The first opens into a wooded, gated courtyard with a carport and space to create a walled stone potager, with direct access into the kitchen. The second, from a quiet country lane, leads along a lawned path through a delightful garden, offering a picturesque approach to the house with its wisteria-laden façade.

From this side, you enter a spacious 36 m² living area featuring a wood-burning stove and the original bread oven — a truly charming focal point. This level also provides access to the 11.5 m² kitchen and an 8.5 m² dining area, along with a modern shower room with WC. The property is connected to mains drainage, offering ease and convenience.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms: a generous principal room of 22.4 m² and a second bedroom of 12.5 m² with its own ensuite bath and hand basin, while a separate WC is located on the landing. Both rooms enjoy breathtaking views across the surrounding countryside.

Outside, quirky steps lead up to a separate studio or office space (6.63m²) ideal for remote working or creative use. The grounds are arranged into several lawned areas, with established fruit trees — including apple, pear, and two cherry trees — alongside an abundance of flowers and budding hedges. A small pond at the entrance enhances the peaceful setting.

In addition, three charming former piggeries provide practical storage space, ideal for logs and gardening equipment, further complementing this characterful and well-rounded property.
