NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This beautifully restored 18th-century farmhouse has been thoughtfully transformed into a high-end alpine retreat, balancing traditional character with contemporary design.

The expansive top floor serves as the heart of the home, featuring a generous open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area of over 50m², complemented by a further 25m² kitchen space—ideal for hosting and entertaining. Large openings onto the south-facing balcony flood the space with natural light and enhance the sense of volume created by the double-height ceilings and exposed beams.

Across the property, six well-appointed bedrooms—most en-suite—offer flexibility for families or groups, while the two master suites add an extra level of comfort with bathtubs and balcony access.

The lower ground floor is designed for leisure, complete with a stylish bar, games and TV area, sauna, and seamless access to the landscaped garden, terrace, and hot tub.

With a heated ski and bike room and close proximity to the Kédeuze cable car, the chalet is perfectly equipped for both winter sports enthusiasts and year-round mountain living.
