DESCRIPTION

Just 2 km from the charming village of Vazerac, this characterful home of approximately 112 m² offers far more than a place to live – it offers a lifestyle. Set within over one hectare of private, tree-lined grounds, with no overlooking neighbours, the property enjoys a peaceful and unspoiled environment, ideal for those seeking space, tranquillity and a connection to nature.

From the moment you arrive, the setting creates a sense of calm. The land unfolds into a mix of open garden, fruit trees and mature oak woodland, offering a variety of atmospheres throughout the seasons. Whether enjoying long summer meals on the terrace, quiet mornings outdoors, or simply the surrounding nature, this is a home designed for relaxed living.

The house itself has been carefully maintained and tastefully renovated, preserving its original charm while incorporating modern comforts. It is perfectly suited as a main residence, a holiday home, or even a lifestyle project in a highly desirable area of southwest France.
