NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Inside, the property offers a warm and welcoming interior with a cosy living room, a well-equipped fitted kitchen with dining area, and bright, comfortable living room and bar. This can be changed back to a downstairs bedroom, if needed. Exposed beams, natural materials, and tasteful décor enhance the character of the home while maintaining a practical layout for everyday living.

Entrance in to the house either via the living room or Kitchen. There is also a door leading out to the back garden.

There is a downstairs shower room and WC and also a separate bathroom.

Upstairs, the property benefits from 2 well-proportioned bedrooms with walk in wardrobes, ideal for family living or hosting guests.

Externally, there is a gravel driveway providing ample parking, an attached garage used for storage, and surrounding garden space perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The attractive setting and traditional Breton style make this home ideal as a permanent residence or holiday retreat.

A wonderful opportunity to acquire a character property in the countryside, ready to move into and enjoy.
