DESCRIPTION

Picture yourself in this charming countryside retreat just outside of Chateauponsac.

This beautiful house features a spacious free flowing ground floor with a modern kitchen/dining area, cozy living room, and convenient WC.

The lounge flows out to the covered patio area which allows you to enjoy al fresco dining in all seasons. The views down the private garden are spectacular.

Upstairs, you'll find three comfortable bedrooms which enjoy the lovely country views, an additional WC, and a separate bathroom with relaxing bathtub. The partially converted attic space currently services as a center for creativity as an art studio and sewing room. This could become a guest suite and features the original hardwood floors and already has plumbing ready for an ensuite.

Outside, discover a large barn offers great storage and there is even an old forge room with working bread oven! There is a well if you wish to use this for watering the garden or maybe install a hot tub to enjoy the panoramic views.

The house has been freshly decorated but maintains many of the original features such as hardwood floors, exposed beams and large granite fireplace. All the major works are done and you have the benefit of mains sewage and town water.

Full amenities are available in the historic town of Chateauponsac which is just 2.5km away down country lanes. Here you will find public transport to Limoges, supermarket, schools, doctors and some lovely cafes. There is also a village market...
