IN BRIEF

The property and business are being sold together. The main building is a fully operational hotel, bar and restaurant comprising 9 en suite bedrooms, one bedroom owner's accommodation, restaurant with 28 covers, bar, fully fitted commercial kitchen. There is also a lovely terrace accommodating 32 customers. The hotel, and all the bedrooms, overlook the beautiful lake in picturesque Peyrat Le Château. There are 7 double rooms, one single room and one family room (sleeping 4). A double room and the family room benefit from a balcony/terrace and there is also a common terrace which other guests can use. There are also two residential dwellings (apartments) attached to the hotel, and a vacant commercial unit, which could be converted subject to planning consent. At the rear is a garden area with a large open barn that can be used for...

DESCRIPTION

This excellent hotel building is well maintained and fitted out to a high standard. On the ground floor there is a large restaurant accommodating 28 clients, a bar area for 20 people, toilet facilities, well fitted commercial kitchen, and hotel reception area. Externally to the front is a lovely terrace for dining or relaxing.

Stairs from the reception lead to the first floor which has 4 bedrooms, all very nicely presented, and with en-suite facilities. There is also a laundry room on this level.

On the second floor are three further bedrooms, again all en-suite, and a storage area for equipment. There are two further bedrooms on the third floor, a double room with balcony and a family room, also with balcony.

Stairs from behind the bar area lead to the owners apartment which has a bedroom, dressing room, bathroom, living room and open kitchen, and small office.

There is also a basement (with boiler) and an attic, both of which can be used for storage.

Attached to the hotel is a building with two dwellings, comprising two apartments, each with two bedrooms, that could be used as staff accommodation.

At the rear of the hotel is a good sized garden area, some of which could be used for additional parking, and a large open barn which has been used for events/parties. There is disabled access (ramps) to the terrace, bar and restaurant. There is also an EV charging point.
