DESCRIPTION

Situated in the charming hamlet of Villarenger, this unusual property will appeal to lovers of authenticity, mountain living and ambitious renovation projects. Set within a peaceful natural environment, the property offers significant potential thanks to its generous volumes, agricultural outbuildings and adjoining agricultural land.

The habitable part of the property, offering more than 200 sqm, is currently divided into two separate living areas which could be combined depending on requirements.

The first accommodation offers a warm and family atmosphere with a living room open onto the kitchen, a veranda, a bathroom and a separate WC. Upstairs, four bedrooms can accommodate a large family or hospitality project, complemented by a shower room with WC.

The second accommodation, accessible either via the veranda or through an independent external entrance, comprises a spacious living area with sleeping space, a mezzanine with additional sleeping accommodation and a shower room. This independent area could suit guest accommodation, a rental unit or a future gîte project.

The outbuildings are a real asset and offer various development possibilities.

On the ground floor, the former barn of approximately 200 sqm, previously used to house goats, retains all the charm and authenticity of traditional Alpine farm buildings with its impressive raw volumes.

The property also benefits from a garage of approximately 53 sqm, a workshop/saddlery of approximately 53 sqm, a large hay storage hangar of approximately 73 sqm with exceptional ceiling height, as well as a former cheese dairy of approximately 30 sqm reflecting the agricultural heritage of the...
