DESCRIPTION

Located in one of the most desirable residential areas of Cahors, this charming detached house enjoys a rare setting: surrounded by greenery and absolute calm, yet only a stone's throw from shops, schools, restaurants and the historic old town.

Built in the 1940s and full of character, the property offers approximately 140m² of bright and welcoming living space over two floors. The house benefits from an ideal south-west exposure, allowing sunlight to flood the interiors throughout the day.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, a separate WC, a bathroom with bathtub and a comfortable 13m² bedroom. A hallway leads to the fully equipped kitchen and spacious living area, opening onto a lovely office/library space. Large openings connect the living areas directly to the terrace and poolside outdoor kitchen, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor lifestyle perfect for entertaining and family living.

Upstairs are two further bedrooms, including a beautiful master suite with dressing room and en-suite shower room with WC. The second upstairs bedroom measures approximately 11m², and there is also a 5m² landing area.

Outside, the property truly comes into its own. The landscaped grounds extend to approximately 4,000m², including around 500m² of fully usable garden space. On the west side, the pool area features a superb outdoor entertaining space with dining area, brazier, pergola and mature wisteria draped over a travertine terrace. The east-facing garden includes a chicken coop and natural hillside surroundings leading towards the peaceful "Côte des Ânes".
