IN BRIEF

This substantial and tastefully renovated property would make the perfect holiday home or a permanent residence for anyone seeking a practical and comfortable home. There is also the potential for rental income from the adjacent annexe which has it's own entrance and everything required for independent living.

About 2 km from the popular village of Saint-Pardoux, the property benefits from great transport links whilst remaining a haven of peace and tranquility tucked away in the picturesque Gatine hills. The trip to bustling Niort and access to the TGV rail network takes about 30 minutes by car whilst Poitiers with its tourist attractions and international airport is less than an hour away. For day to day essentials there is a bakery and a self-service supermarket at Saint-Pardoux as well as small local restaurant. For a wider range of...
