DESCRIPTION

Located in a renowned wine village, this family residence includes a guest apartment on the ground floor, a private courtyard, a large covered area, opportunities for expansion within the barn, or the possibility of operating as a boutique wine estate.

Pommard offers a variety of amenities, restaurants, and prestigious wineries. Beaune, the heart of Burgundy wine country, is only 5 km away.

A perfect location for wine enthusiasts.

If you dream of producing your own wine, this property is ideal for you!

The ground-floor residence is accessed through the main entrance. The upper-level living quarters can be reached by entering the courtyard through the large barn doors opening onto a spacious covered porch.

The ground-floor apartment was originally designed to accommodate winemaking technicians during harvest season, but it can also be rented as a one-bedroom apartment.

It features a spacious living area with an open-plan kitchen overlooking the courtyard, as well as a generously sized bathroom with a shower and toilet. A door provides direct access to the courtyard.

The main living area upstairs extends over two levels. The first floor is accessed via a magnificent custom stone staircase with wrought-iron railings.

From the top of these exterior stairs, you are welcomed by lovely views over the courtyard and a charming terrace/barbecue area. You can also see the two-story barn, whose lower level has been electrically upgraded to accommodate the equipment required for wine production.

The front door opens into an entrance hall with the
