NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This stone village house, built in 1845, is situated in a quiet and authentic setting in the heart of the hamlet of Le Pin. The main entrance is via an external staircase leading to a stone terrace of approximately 13 m², ideal for enjoying sunny days.

From this terrace, you enter the 27 m² living room, offering a lovely living space featuring a wood-burning stove (currently not connected), providing the potential for cosy and economical supplementary heating and a 15 m² fitted kitchen-diner, which is both welcoming and practical.

On the upper floor, the sleeping area comprises two bedrooms, a separate toilet and a shower room fitted with a shower cubicle, a washbasin and a washing machine connection.

On the ground floor, two adjoining cellars provide storage space.

Features:

Roof in good condition with insulation

Electric radiator heating

Existing wood-burning stove to be connected

Double-glazed wooden windows, except in the kitchen and one single-glazed bedroom

Stone terrace

Hot water tank installed in the cellar

Communal car park nearby

This property will appeal to lovers of character homes seeking authenticity, tranquillity and proximity to nature.
