DESCRIPTION

Charming countryside property set in a peaceful hamlet, offering character, potential, and beautiful outdoor space.

The house benefits from a lovely garden, a garage, and two carports, providing ample parking and storage. Additional outbuildings include a studio or possible extra room to convert, as well as a renovation project featuring a traditional bread oven full of rustic charm.

Inside, the home opens into a welcoming living space split into two areas, with a dining room and cosy sitting room separated by a wood burner, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The bright kitchen is accessed directly from the living area and enjoys plenty of natural light. The property is also set up for underfloor heating, the heat pump for this needs to be replaced.

Upstairs, the staircase leads to a bedroom, followed by a dressing room with shower, and a second bedroom with a toilet, offering flexible accommodation options.

A characterful property with great potential, ideal for those seeking country living in a tranquil setting
