DESCRIPTION

On the ground floor, the house opens into a tiled entrance room of approximately 17.4m², with a staircase leading to the first floor. This level also includes a WC and a bathroom of around 6m², fitted with a bath, sink and bidet.

The main living accommodation is on the first floor, where there are two bedrooms measuring approximately 11.6m² and 10.2m². The kitchen/dining room of around 15.5m² includes a sink unit, cupboard and access to a balcony. Next to this is a living room of approximately 13.1m² with a fireplace. There is potential to open the kitchen and living room together to create a larger open-plan living space.

Above the first floor is an attic, offering useful storage space or potential for further development, subject to requirements.

Under the first floor is a garage of approximately 27.6m², which can also be accessed from the small road behind the house. The garage houses the oil-fired boiler and oil tank.

A short walk from the house are two separate garden plots, totalling approximately 308m². One of the plots includes a metal garden shed, providing useful outdoor storage. There are great spaces for growing some vegetables or simply relaxing and enjoying the sun.

This property would suit buyers looking for a cheap little village house with manageable outside space, a garage and scope to update and personalise without it being a total renovation.
