DESCRIPTION

Set on the popular Corbières wine route, on the edge of the Narbonnaise Regional Natural Park, this unique property enjoys a spectacular setting surrounded by vineyards, rivers and dramatic limestone gorges. Popular with walkers, cyclists and wine tourists, the area offers an authentic southern French lifestyle while remaining within easy reach of Narbonne (25 minutes), Mediterranean beaches (35 minutes), and the international airports of Carcassonne, Perpignan and Montpellier.

Originally a railway property, this distinctive building has been thoughtfully converted to provide approximately 360 m² of versatile accommodation. Combining historic character with modern comforts, it has previously operated as a chambres d'hôtes, hotel and café, while also offering the flexibility of a spacious private residence.
