DESCRIPTION

Ideally located just a few steps from the Vieux Port of La Rochelle, on the second floor of a character building crafted from dressed stone (pierre de taille), this exceptional 176 m² apartment offers superb volumes and the timeless charm of period features.

Property Features:

Reception Space: A vast entrance hall leads to a bright living room that opens onto a dining room. These living areas benefit from beautiful high ceilings, perfectly preserved period parquet flooring, and an antique fireplace.

Kitchen: A spacious, separate, and highly functional kitchen.

Sleeping Quarters: The apartment features three comfortable bedrooms, a bathroom, a shower room, and separate toilets.

Flexible Space: A separate TV lounge or study completes the property—ideal for remote working.

Additional Perks:

Secure Parking: A secure, covered parking space located in the immediate vicinity—a rare and highly sought-after asset in this historic district.

Bathed in natural light and boasting excellent energy performance (EPC rated C), this rare property ideally combines period character with contemporary comfort.
