DESCRIPTION

Character Longère with Private Lake, Complete Privacy and Exceptional Natural Setting Near Lac de Guerlédan

Hidden away at the very end of a peaceful hamlet in the beautiful Breton countryside, this enchanting stone longère offers a rare opportunity to enjoy complete tranquillity surrounded by nature, while remaining within easy reach of the magnificent Lac de Guerlédan and the many attractions of Central Brittany.

With no passing traffic, no overlooking neighbours and views over woodland and countryside, this is a property where everyday life slows to the rhythm of nature. The only sounds are birdsong and the gentle movement of water across your own private lake.

Occupying over 6,400 m² of beautifully landscaped grounds, this charming south-facing property offers approximately 133 m² of living accommodation, combining traditional Breton character with modern comfort. Recent improvements including the roof and windows provide reassurance for future owners while preserving the authentic and intrinsic charm of the property.

A Warm and Welcoming Home

Stepping inside, you are immediately greeted by a warm and inviting atmosphere where exposed stone and traditional features blend effortlessly with practical family living.

The main living space is large, bright and welcoming, benefiting from its sunny south-facing aspect. At the heart of the home, the cosy sitting room features a wood-burning stove set within the fireplace, creating the perfect setting for winter evenings after a day exploring the local countryside. At the other end of the room is a second fireplace and dining area.
