DESCRIPTION

Set in the peaceful countryside between the popular market town of Ribérac and the picturesque village of Aubeterre-sur-Dronne, officially listed among the most beautiful villages in France, this charming character property enjoys a private and tranquil setting on approximately 4,320 m² of land with no overlooking neighbours.

The property is arranged around a traditional courtyard and benefits from a delightful garden with a well and is planted with mature trees, shrubs and seasonal flowers, creating a welcoming and relaxing environment throughout the year. The grounds offer plenty of space for outdoor living, gardening projects or simply enjoying the beauty of the surrounding countryside.

The main house combines authentic charm with comfortable living accommodation. On the ground floor, an entrance hall leads to a kitchen and a bright living room, both full of character and enjoying pleasant views over the garden and courtyard. Also on this level are two bedrooms, a shower room and a separate WC, making the house suitable for single-level living if required.

Upstairs, two additional bedrooms provide further accommodation for family and guests. A shower room with WC and a bathroom with WC complete the first floor. Throughout the house, the rooms are well-proportioned and filled with natural light, while exposed beams and original features add warmth and character.

A particular advantage of the property is the range of attached outbuildings, offering excellent potential for a variety of uses. These include a utility room, a traditional tack room, a cellar and an impressive 120 m²...
