Floor:	300 m2
Plot Size:	399324 m2

IN BRIEF

Rural estate of approximately 40 hectares (99 acres) in one contiguous block, featuring two traditional Corrèze stone buildings in need of renovation. The potential is immense, with around 300 m² (3,230 sq ft) of existing buildings surrounded by a rare balance of woodland and meadowland.

The property includes more than 25 hectares of diverse woodland, comprising conifer stands, coppice-with-standards woodland, and hornbeam groves, offering significant forestry, hunting, and heritage value. In addition, approximately 14 hectares of meadows and agricultural land provide excellent opportunities for farming or grazing, including several hectares of wet meadows that support rich biodiversity.

This exceptional estate is particularly well suited to agricultural, equestrian, hunting, forestry, conservation, or nature-based projects.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Approximately 4.82 hectares of conifer woodland comprising mature, well-established trees, offering strong forestry potential and opportunities for timber production.

Small open areas throughout the property facilitate access and circulation across the estate.

Nearly 4.7 hectares of workable agricultural land, suitable for arable crops, forage production, or grazing.

More than 11.7 hectares of mixed woodland managed as coppice-with-standards, combining mature trees with natural regeneration and offering significant forestry, hunting, and environmental value.

Just over 1 hectare of natural coppice woodland, ideal for sustainable woodland management and firewood production.

More than 8 hectares of hornbeam-dominated woodland, a species valued for the quality of its timber and its ecological importance.

Over 5.4 hectares of natural wet meadows, particularly favourable for biodiversity, grazing, and environmental conservation projects.

Approximately 3.85 hectares of quality grassland, well suited to livestock grazing, hay production, or outdoor recreational activities.
