DESCRIPTION

Be captivated by the timeless charm of this exceptional 18th-century property, a former orangery steeped in history, nestled in approximately one hectare of lush greenery. Offering 274.49 m² of living space, this characterful residence elegantly combines authenticity and comfort thanks to renovations carried out over time.

From the moment you enter, the period features immediately catch the eye: an original wooden staircase, authentic flooring, generous proportions, and preserved architectural details. The house offers 5 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms with showers, 4 toilets (3 bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms with showers), ample closets and storage space, a boiler room with a technical room, and several attics totaling 136 m² offering additional potential.

Outside, the setting is idyllic and unspoiled: a swimming pool, ornamental garden, vegetable garden, rose bushes, and ornamental and fruit trees create an environment conducive to relaxation. The outbuildings enhance the property, including a former stable of 33m², a garage of 43m², a wash house, and the remains of a former dwelling, all true testaments to the past. A nearby stream adds a further touch of serenity to this unique ensemble.

Located on the outskirts of Auchay-sur-Vendée, the property enjoys a sought-after location, close to the Marais Poitevin, the Mervent-Vouvant forest, hiking trails, outdoor activities, and less than an hour from the Vendée beaches. A rare and authentic property, ideal for a prestigious family residence, a tourism business, or simply for enjoying an exceptional lifestyle.
