IN BRIEF

A rare opportunity to acquire a thriving pet boarding business together with a beautifully renovated 180m² character home in the peaceful Charente countryside. Renowned for its excellent reputation, loyal clientele and regular repeat bookings, the fully operational business includes 8 purpose-built heated and cooled dog kennels, a superb 10-suite cattery with preparation room, CCTV monitoring and professionally maintained facilities, allowing new owners to generate income from day one. The charming four-bedroom home combines character and comfort with extensive barns, a large hangar, mature gardens, fenced paddocks and wonderful countryside views. With significant potential to expand into grooming, daycare, dog training or holiday accommodation (subject to permissions), this is a unique turnkey lifestyle property offering both an exceptional home and a proven business.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Opportunities like this are exceptionally rare.

This is far more than a beautiful country home—it is a fully established lifestyle business with an outstanding reputation, loyal customer base and immediate income potential, all set within a beautifully renovated property in the rolling countryside of the Charente.

The current owners have created one of the area's most highly regarded dog and cat boarding businesses, renowned for the quality of its facilities and the exceptional standard of care provided. The business benefits from regular repeat clients, continuous bookings and an excellent reputation, allowing a new owner to take over a profitable operation immediately while enjoying considerable scope for future growth.
