IN BRIEF

Located in the heart of the Loire Valley, within walking distance of the historic centre of Amboise and just two hours from Paris, this remarkable troglodyte property offers a truly distinctive lifestyle in one of France's most desirable regions. Built around impressive caves carved into the tuffeau stone and featuring a heated indoor swimming pool, the property combines a private residence with an established guest house business. Currently operated as guest accommodation and a holiday rental, it offers the opportunity to continue a well-established hospitality business or create an entirely new lifestyle project in an exceptional setting.

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Beyond the entrance, a series of cave-carved spaces gradually unfold, revealing the remarkable character and atmosphere that define this unique troglodyte home. The main reception area forms the heart of the home, bringing together a kitchen, lounge, dining area and relaxation spaces in a setting designed for both everyday living and entertaining guests.

Guest accommodation has been thoughtfully arranged throughout the property, with each room making the most of the spectacular cave setting and enjoying its own individual character. A larger suite with a spa bath provides additional accommodation, while the heated indoor swimming pool creates a memorable focal point and offers year-round enjoyment. Together with the various wellness and relaxation areas, it contributes significantly to the appeal of the property and to overall guest experience.

A separate private living area allows the owners to enjoy the property independently from the guest accommodation. This section includes a living room with open-plan kitchen, several bedrooms and a variety of ancillary spaces suited to comfortable daily life.

Outside, the grounds extend to approximately 1,200 m² and include garden areas, terraces and outdoor seating spaces. The location is particularly appealing, allowing easy access on foot to the restaurants, shops, markets and historic attractions that have made Amboise one of the most visited destinations in the Loire Valley.

Whether you are looking to continue an established hospitality business, create a boutique retreat, relocate to the Loire Valley or simply enjoy an extraordinary home in one of France's most celebrated regions, this unique...
