DESCRIPTION

Exceptional Restored 19th Century Maison de Maître with Luxury Guest Accommodation, Wellness Suite and Endless Lifestyle Opportunities

Standing proudly in the heart of Aspet since the nineteenth century, this exceptional Maison de Maître has been beautifully reimagined for modern living whilst preserving the elegance and character that only time can create.

Lovingly restored by its current owners and successfully operated as an exclusive boutique chambres d'hôtes, the property offers remarkable flexibility for those wishing to continue the business, create a prestigious private residence with luxury guest accommodation, or simply embrace an entirely new way of life in one of the most desirable villages of the French Pyrenees.

From the moment you step through the impressive front door, it is impossible not to admire the quality of the renovation. Every room reflects the same meticulous attention to detail, where original character has been carefully preserved whilst introducing refined contemporary finishes. Beautiful ceiling heights, elegant proportions and abundant natural light combine to create a home that feels both sophisticated and wonderfully welcoming.

Offering over 518m² of beautifully presented accommodation with generously proportioned rooms throughout, the ground floor forms the heart of the home. The welcoming entrance hall leads effortlessly into a fully equipped kitchen, flowing naturally into the breakfast room and elegant dining room, creating the perfect setting for entertaining family, friends or guests. A spacious reception room invites you to relax beside the fireplace, while a generous office provides an ideal work-from-home environment or the potential for comfortable private...
