DESCRIPTION

Renovated stone Mas in the southern Ardèche with courtyard, guest accommodations, 5.75 hectares of land and breathtaking 360° views

This beautifully renovated stone Mas enjoys a truly unique location at the end of a small lane, surrounded by nature and offering a spectacular 360° panorama. From the property, you can admire several mountain ranges and iconic peaks, including the Dent de Rez to the north, the Pic Saint-Loup and Mont Bouquet to the south, and Mont Ventoux to the east.

The charming enclosed courtyard forms the heart of the property. It features a veranda, an outdoor kitchen with adjoining cellar, and a separate entrance door providing access to a bedroom with its own bathroom. The courtyard also gives access to a relaxation area, with a wine cellar behind it, as well as another spacious cellar opposite the authentic bread oven. In addition, there is a second intimate courtyard beneath a beautiful tree, where you can relax in the shade and enjoy the magnificent views in complete tranquillity.

A stone staircase leads to the covered terrace, a wonderful place offering breathtaking views over the surrounding landscape. From this terrace, a private entrance provides access to a spacious bedroom (25m²) with its own bathroom. The terrace also leads to the dining room (18m²), which benefits from the same spectacular panorama.

From the dining room, you reach the kitchen (18m²), the living room (27m²) and a bedroom (20m²) with its own shower room. The living room provides access to an...
