IN BRIEF

Situated in the heart of the village, this charming character home with 4/5 bedrooms has remained in the same family for over 100 years. Full of original features, it boasts an elegant wooden staircase, beautiful timber floors, and attractive fireplaces that reflect its rich history. The spacious, light-filled rooms create a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. A part of the ground floor could be used as an annexe with its own private entrance, it offers excellent potential for extended family and guest accommodation. The property also benefits from an adjoining double garage and a detached barn set within the garden, complete with separate vehicle access. A fresh baguette and pastry vending machine is conveniently located in the village, while the popular village of Jumilhac-le-Grand and the bustling market town of Thiviers, with its full range of shops, services,...
