IN BRIEF

Full of charm and character, this beautiful stone village house is located in the heart of the picturesque medieval village of Lauzun. Surrounded by beautifully restored historic buildings, it enjoys an enviable setting just a short stroll from the village café, restaurant, local shop and scenic countryside walks. The property combines generous, light-filled living spaces with authentic period features, including exposed stone walls and original beams, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. Ideally positioned just 30 minutes from Bergerac International Airport and close to the popular bastide towns of Eymet and Issigeac, it is perfectly suited as a permanent residence, an easy-to-maintain holiday home or an investment property with excellent seasonal rental appeal.
