DESCRIPTION

Properties of this scale and character rarely become available in the centre of Saint-Maixent-l'École. Occupying an elevated position overlooking the Sèvre valley, this impressive stone residence offers approximately 446m² of versatile accommodation, including two independent apartments, all set within beautifully established gardens of approximately 2,152m².

The principal house immediately impresses with its elegant proportions and wealth of original architectural features. High ceilings, period fireplaces, original parquet floors and decorative mouldings create a home of exceptional character, while the remarkable double-revolution staircase forms the architectural centrepiece of the property.

The ground floor has been designed for both entertaining and everyday family life. A magnificent reception room with spectacular ceiling height provides an impressive setting for entertaining, while the welcoming entrance hall leads to an office and a spacious kitchen/dining room. Large windows and doors flood the interior with natural light and open onto terraces overlooking the gardens and the valley beyond. Utility and service areas complete this level.

The first floor offers generous family accommodation arranged around spacious landings and the impressive staircase. The principal suite benefits from a private bathroom, while the remaining bedrooms retain their original charm with fireplaces and period features. Additional bathrooms and separate WCs ensure the house is well suited to family life or welcoming guests.

The upper floor provides further flexible accommodation, including additional bedrooms, a spacious sitting room, storage areas and attic space. Whether used for family, home working, hobbies or creative pursuits, this level offers excellent versatility.

Beneath the house, extensive vaulted...
